

David U. Maughan is a progressive survey office, located in downtown Parry Sound, serving Parry Sound and Muskoka.

David has over 10 years experience in the survey industry in the Parry Sound and Muskoka area. He has a BA from York University in Toronto and studied surveying at the University of Toronto. He received his license to practice as an Ontario Land Surveyor in January, 2004.

David is actively involved in the Association of Ontario Land Surveyors, serving as past regional chair and currently sitting on the Municipal Liason Committee.