

Development is time and cost effective when all municipal, engineering, and architectural requirements are correctly integrated and applied through an OLS. Correctly identifying the boundaries, together with construction points, allows work to be done right the first time. From the plan to the ground, the Ontario Land Surveyor is your expert in measurement.

Please see "Topographic" and "Construction Layout" on our Products and Services page for further information.