The survey is not complex as it is the property and how it was originally surveyed  combined with how it is currently affected by construction and/or settlement to the limit.

The province understands and legislates that property is to be accuratlely described and monumented in a certain manner.