When accounting for land and the rights to it, the surveyor's certificate on a plan or sketch indicates that all specifications and requirements as found under applicable statute in the Province of Ontario have been accounted for.

Legislation that the OLS is accountable to include in part: the Surveyor's Act, Surveys Act, Land Titles Act, Registry Act.